

Lori Sherritt-Fleming
Children's Author

School, Library and Community Event Visits

"Energetic, Educational and Entertaining," are but a few of the descriptors used by educators in reference to Lori Sherritt-Fleming's author visits. Audiences young and old are engaged by her theatrical approach to interactive learning and inspired by the diversity of her written repertoire. Lori weaves musicality, poetry, spoken word, storytelling, humour and drama into a presentation that challenges everyone to unearth their own creative voices as well as to discover a means for expressing them.

Passionate about fusing art and education, Lori founded The Tickle Trunk Players where she writes, produces and performs original shows focusing on literacy initiatives. For more information visit www.tickletrunkplayers.com. Lori is also a highly skilled artist educator who has been designing and delivering innovative classroom and professional development programs in partnership with teachers across Canada for close to a decade.

aRHYTHMetic is Lori's debut picture book, penned with co-authors Tiffany Stone and Kari-Lynn Winters, published by Gumboot Books and illustrated by Scot Ritchie. Lori offers presentations suitable for pre-school to Grade 4 and workshops for older students. While highlighting primary math outcomes, aRHYTHMetic takes readers on a "fun-tastical" journey using rhythm, rhyme and playful illustrations. Demand is such that aRHYTHMetic has already been translated into French.

Lori's presentations can be tailored to any group's interests and learning levels. Lori can deliver her presentations bilingually upon request. For more information or to book a visit, send an e-mail to lorisherritt@mac.com or call 778-319-6524 or 1-800-414-4077.
